

Lori Kelley - Eowyns Song

Misc Unsigned Bands

Dm Am G
When you go they ll wrap me in linen
Dm C F
Kiss my lips once before they turn pale
Dm Am G
On this morn you ride to the haunted mountain
Dm C G
And no one will hear of this tale

I have carried a blade from a young age
And I value the skills I have kept
I have but one fear, to end in a cage
So I go with a mind full of death.

G D A Bm
And oh, I would have followed you down to the end
G A
My captain my king.
G D A Bm G
And oh, I would have followed you down to the paths of the dead
Dm Am G
But I ride to find my own meaning

When you go I ll shed these maiden s clothes
And my lips move with prayer on my breath
As a boy or a man I can face the blackness
For we meet with the armies of death

And oh I would have followed you down to the end
My captain my king
And oh I would have followed you down to the paths of the dead
But I ride to find my own meaning.

Dm C F
Fire consumes the heart that teaches
Dm C F
The captain of evil to fall
Dm C F
Desire as pure as a man that reaches
Dm C G
The humble hero in us all

G D A Bm G
Oh I would have followed you down to the end
A

My king

G D

A

Bm

G

And oh I would have followed you down to the paths of the dead

Dm

Am

Dm

But I ride to find my own meaning.