

Mary And The Moon - Fosho The Brett Song
Misc Unsigned Bands

(I think for the most part of the verses she plays each chord once then mutes the strings)

E

Just one drink and I ll wish you were mine

E/D#

But I don t think that you think that I m worth your time

C#m

You ll be safe behind and I ll be way over the line

B

Then david will find a way to annoy caroline

Still I m in the front and you re always in the back seat
These are only words its only love and this is just me
Every time we meet your red hair captivates me
And I still can t work out why

BRIDGE

C#m

E, E/D#

Metaphors are metaphors and I don t like them

C#m

B

E, E/D#

So don t make up those cleche lines and ask me to recite them

CHOURUS

And for sure

You re gone

I swear

You put it on

You re as subtle as can be

But it mesmerizes me

Using words I never thought to look in a dictionary

Cause you re just a little too smart

Guess I ll have to play this part

Well maybe glasses will make me look a little bit brighter

V2

Give me some respect and I ll give you my whole heart

Persuade you that I m clever, but I wouldn t go that far

They say these words are useless but they re from mine to your heart

me and me and me and, you you you

BRIDGE 2

Metaphors are metaphors and I don t like them

Cleches are the worst so don t even think to try them

CHORUS

Sitting in the backseat
Brett lets get a taxi
Tell the driver anywhere
Just take us away

I m everything that you want
Plus I have a bigger heart
isn t that what matters
You should know you re smart

CHORUS
