Double Bogey Blues:Mickey Jones.

Great blues song from 2002.

#1.

E

It s early Sunday morning, the sun is coming up,

I m on the tee at seven, I m here to try my luck.

A

They say this game s a tough one, but I ll give it my best shot.

E

Cause the bunkers look like beaches and the greens like parking lots.

CHORUS:

A

E B

Oh, lord....what I m I gonna do? Help me keep my head down, and save me from these double bogey blues.

A

E B

#2.

E

First I pull out my driver, check my stance and grip,

I m trying to remember, every single Nicklaus tip.

A

Straighten that left elbow, slightly bend your knees, keep your head behind that ball, and look out for those trees.

E

CHORUS:

A

E B

Oh, Lord....what club should I choose? I m lost out in the forest,

A

E B

save me from those double bogey blues.

(INTERLUDE:)

#3.

E

Well, I started out with three balls, now two of them are lost.

Got two hundred yards of water that I gotta get across.

A

Did I hear somebody talking about a Forty dollar bet?

E

I got Thirty in my pocket, but I won t let em see me sweat.

CHORUS:

A E B
Oh, Lord....the next Bud s for you. Help me with this three wood,
A E B
save me from those double bogey blues.

#4.

E
Well, I m on the eighteenth and seven, my knees began to shake.

I m praying I can one-putt, try to save an eight.

A
It s a forty dollar Nassau, if I sink this I m in luck.

E
I ll be sitting in the club house, sippin bourbon on the rocks.

CHORUS:

A E B
Oh, Lord....what am I gonna do? Help me keep my head down..
A E B
save me from these double bogey blues.

OUTRO:

A E B
Oh, oh, oh, Lord....I can t afford to lose..I ll be in A E B E
church next Sunday..just save me from those double bogey blues.

A smash blues hit from Kraziekhat.
