F C A# C
When I was 16 I didn't have a care, t-tops off, wind in my hair

I had a brown eyed girl she was sittin' shotgun, holdin' my hand in the hot summer sun,

A# C F C
Her bare feet, up on the dash, tellin' a joke and makin' her laugh
A# C F
Yeah I miss every bit of that dreams, and a

F C A# C
A radio that won't pick a station up
F C A#
And that brown-eyed girl well she moved on, to put it lightly she's long
C gone
F C A#
And I sold that muscle car when gas went up
C F Gm C
And they say change is a good thing, but man I sure do miss the old days
