Misc Unsigned Bands

Verses:

C Am F G

Chorus:

F G Am

F G C Am

jump into that water, is it colder or is it hot or is it nothing quite worth mentioning
all. Hearts they will awaken to remember fears of breaking, but all animals must answer their call. it s like when I try to write a song sometimes the words just come out wrong
if I never pick the pen up, they are held inside and never shared, and oh was that so was not really what I meant but atleast you got the notion that I cared.

and a song well sung is a song well sung so sing.
if nothing else you must remember that you re still breathing so we ignore those body parts that get so wet and get so hard, focus on our beating

you arm to hold me here to guard me, i can sleep alone tonight, I feel weird but that s
I m learning not to think too much, I turn the lights off and sleep tight. If I make a mistake with anything, well, it won t take forever to find myself again, in a subjective
we ve seen alot, we make the best of what we ve got. all we are is everything and we ve ever been.

so tell me not to fall inlove with you and frankly my friend that s the sweetest
thing
do.

Summer in my town is nice, my front porch is my paradise, I can sit here
everynight yes,
could watch the world go by and know that I m in motion to occasionally think of
you,
hope that you realize that when you sit here by my side, whatever that implies will be fine, my heart beats like a tambourine it plays along in time.
