Verse 1:

C

I know life is somewhat predictable

Am

We go home and walk right back out the door

F

C

When you call me I will never say hello

C

Late night driving wishing we were home

Am

Petty fighting pretending that we know

C

G/B

Every word that the other one is gonna say

Chorus 1:

C

F

Now you go up when I come down

C

F

Like hot and cold we spin around

C

G

A perfect match it's plain to see

Verse 2:

C

Never caring about the time of day

Am

What you're wearing dancing in the rain

C

When I saw you I knew something had to change

C

In the front seat of your mother's car

Am

We talked all night underneath the stars

F

C

G/B

When I woke up all I could think about was you

Chorus 2:
