Your Mum Wasnâ€™t Wearin Knickers!
(Nicky Patterson 2005)

CAPO I

Verse riff: Am|F|E|Am until last line

V1:

Iâ€™m not jokin
it came right out the blue For a while I was quite certain that it just wasnâ€™t true
The wind blew right through us, really ruffled my shirt
But it took a funny up-gust and it lifted up her skirt

G

Em

Am (into riffx4 then V2)

And mate, your mum wasnâ€™t wearin any knickers!

V2:

Now it wasnâ€™t only me who saw, there was your da and his bird
There was Collette and Pat and Dave as well, so Iâ€™m not bein absurd And itâ€™s not that we were looking, it just happened so fast But we wouldnâ€™t have seen that much at all if her skirt wasnâ€™t half mast Aw mate, your mumâ€™s she wasnâ€™t wearin knickers!

V3:

We tried quickly to forget it but we found it quite hard And I hope you can forgive us it fair took us off guard I tried to change the subject but Pat muttered to Dave That it could have been a whole lot worse if your mum hadnâ€™t shaved!
And mate, your mum wasnâ€™t wearin knickers!

Riff x2 only into Instrumental Verse barred chords, final line low G on 3rd to high E on 7

V4:

So your mum had had a bit to drink, so I got her up the road

On bidding her goodnight at last she grabbed me by the coat She offered me some coffee but I thought that was too far And those arenâ€™t your mumâ€™s knickers that you saw in my car Aw mate, those arenâ€™t your mumâ€™s knickers! (this line high G, high E)

Last line barred G on 3rd normal E, final strike on Am
