Em
it s not easy to forget D A Em
no, no, no
it s not easy at all, not at all
not after all

You try to convince me to stay that there s still something worth staying but I m not allowed

it s not how it works I m not allowed to still love you not after all that happened once neither I m allowed to forget, all that what holds me back you re that scary shadow, following me everywhere and making darkness around me when I should be still shining after all...
