

Parikrama - But It Rained

Misc Unsigned Bands

My names Vishal Gandhi.this song by an Indian Band called PARIKRAMA released during the most dark days of my life when I was alone and I had only my guitar with me. Although it doesnt have the greatest lyrics I like the rythm of the song.

C Dm C
Wrapped in a polythene, tucked away safe in my mind
C Dm C
a little goodbye, maybe, or just a passing smile

C Dm C
The birds fly away to the sky still searching for home
C Dm C
a bunch o paper flowers, or a little child left all alone
G Dm F C
Can somebody hear me, I m screaming from so far away
C Dm C
morning who ll calm you, the evening s eclipsed again

B F C
*Well does life get any better
B F C
more yesterday than today

B F C
How I thought the sun would shine tommorrow
G
But it rained...

Continue in this way

They justified the cause for which Daddy might give up his life
,it s been so long, so long a time but still I miss Daddy at night
The ache is long gone but the never keeps staring at me the waters in the seas are high, and all the sand castles have drowned

*Well does life get any better
more yesterday than today
How I thought the sun would shine tommorrow
But it rained...
