Far away so far away, but still so close, oh still so close

To find my way I had to pray, my river flows to light that glows

I try to be, I try to see, all the strength inside of me
I chase a dream, a sunlight beam, Iâ€™m closer now, a silver gleam

[Chorus]

With faith I travel forth, guided by a star up north

Coming home Iâ€™m light and warm, finding shelter from the storm

My childhood friends went here and there, but still theyâ€™re with me everywhere
What I canâ€™t touch I still can feel, the wisdom in my spirit is real

Older brother, warm and strong, you make me feel like I belong
Younger brother, gift of God, your heartâ€™s devotion I applaud

[Chorus]

Soul-companion, dear to me, we walk the path of destiny
Priest and priestess, love divine, two serpents coiling up my spine

Mother, father, I thank you so, my sun and earth that made me grow
Your eyes have seen both night and day, youâ€™ve been both close and far away

[Chorus]

My angel sings with his voice and sword, praising the almighty Lord
Wings unfolded, soaring high, letting out a battle cry

My spirit horse is running wild, guided by my inner child
A knight and stallion on a quest, pursuing it with zeal and zest

[Chorus]

Teacher I bow down to you, my inner light you made shine through
You passed your wisdom on to me, my inner strength you made me see

[Chorus]

With faith Iâ€™m shining bright, like a northern star at night
Giving shelter to the brave, in my sacred, cosmic cave
