

Referral Revenge - Your Smiling Face

Misc Unsigned Bands

This is the second song of my own creation that I performed. People really liked it. I originally wrote it for my friend.

My band liked it and decided to play it. Here it is:

(standard tuning and strumming)

Intro: C, G, D, Em, Am, G, D

[illegible]

Chorus:

C G
 You need me now
D Em
 You re feeling down
Am G D
 I will always be there for you

You feel all alone
You seem solitary prone
You need a true friend
I ll be there for you
I will see you soon
Because I love you

Chorus (x2)

The second verse is played the same chord progression as the first. So fairly simple and you can make up your own melody for it. I wish I could show you how the melody goes for it but I may put it on YouTube under Theangrybird44 so look for my channel on that.
