There was a spark between us
I never knew it would end like this
Cuz I never expected to fall for you

I can still remember when we had sleepless nights
I can still remember when you were holding me tight

I know it s hard to baby
But you know I ll do everything

G-D-Em-C

I ll do whatever it takes, to make you stay
I ll do whatever it takes, to brighten up your day
You know I ll do everything,everything to keep us strong
