I drive a 98 Jeep Classic, Rockin in my cheap sunglasses,

Am D G
The radio up and my windows down,

Chorus

D Am
And I m just a smalltown girl, Little old me against the world,

C G D
Wearin my cowgirl boots, and my tight blue jeans,

G Am
Friday night football games, I love the sound of this place.

C G
Most wouldn t understand, It s just a smalltown kinda thing.

Verse 2

G C
Rumours just keep on spreadin , We heard that Tina s pregnant,

Am G
But we re not sure if that s true,

G C
Derek and Kelsey broke up, he was caught cheatin ,

Am D A

And so was Billy s dad, with another woman.

Chorus

D Am
And that s just a smalltown for ya, Might as well join right in,

C G
Grab your guitar and sing along, To this good old country song,

D Am
Everybody knows you by name, You gotta just love this place,

C
No most wouldn t understand, It s just a smalltown kinda thing.

Break - G

Verse 3

C Am
No matter where I go, No matter where I ll be,

C D
This town will always be home to me,

Chorus

D Am
And I m just a smalltown girl, I got the best friends in the world,

C G D
Me and my cowgirl boots, and my tight blue jeans,

D Am
Rivalry football games, The Beavers put the G-Men to shame,

C D
No most wouldn t understand, It s just a smalltown kinda thing,

C D
Probably wouldn t understand, It s just a smalltown kinda thing.

G
Oh yeah

G
Oh

I think this is right. It s the version from the YouTube video of it being played at Open Mic Night at that place that always changes it s name. It s also one of her best songs. It perfectly describes Bluefield, West Virginia.
