F#

Still here

A D

Im Walking beside you

F#

Still clear

That we could talk the night through

Right through, only stopping to watch the sun, rising
Amber light is dancing on the horizon
Feels too good to be true
I must be sitting here dreaming

Still here

Now im getting to know you

And this could still be, so sweet

To take the time to

And well be only stopping to watch the sun, go down

Heads feeling dizzy on this merry go round

Feels too good to be true

So dont leave me

Or will you be gone?

Am D F#

Will you be gone?

Still here

Im Walking beside you

Still clear

That we could talk the night through

Right through, only stopping to watch the sun, rising

Amber light is dancing on the horizon
Feels too good to be true
I must be sitting here dreaming

Will you be here when I wake
Say youll be here when I wake
Will you be here when I wake
Dont leave me, dont leave me
As the day breaks
