Bullingdon Club song - S02E06 Comedy Vehicle: Democracy

Played with a capo on 2. Not all of this is right; the end and the bit where it says there aren't any women I haven't done a good job on. Sorry.

D G
Tonight, Iâ€™ll dress in blue

D G
And you will dress in blue too

A G
I carve the pheasant as I sit across from you

A
G
And talk about all the wonderful things that we will do

D A G
G
Youâ€™re youthful, youâ€™re beautiful, youâ€™re wealthy and youâ€™re smart

D A G G
Iâ€™m gonna make you make you the mistress of my heart

D A G G
Tonight, we all make love

D A G G
In the Bullingdon Club

D A G G
Tonight, you all make love by your own apparent free choice

D A G G
To the Bullingdon Club

G D
The future was always theirs

G
So was much of Oxfordshire

G D
Breast, leg or thigh

G D
Carve up the carcass as you desire

A G
Champagne Charlie ate all the quailâ€™s eggs

A G
Iâ€™d get up to throw up but itâ€™s a dismissible offence

D A G

G
Youâ€™re youthful, youâ€™re beautiful, youâ€™re wealthy and youâ€™re smart

D A G

G
Iâ€™m gonna make you make you the mistress of my heart

D G
There arenâ€™t any women doesnâ€™t matter â€˜cause we can hire some in

D A
Were you partial to the white meat?

G G
Were you partial to the dark meat boys?

D A
Were you partial to the white meat?

G G
Or were you partial to the dark meat George?

D A
Were you partial to the white meat?

G G
Or were you partial to the dark meat Dave?

D A
Were you partial? Were you partial

G G
In your salad days?

D D
The future, the future is ours

G D
Nothing is beyond our powers
