

Taps - I Remember
Misc Unsigned Bands

Standard Tuning

Bm A
I remember all those centuries ago,
D E
Back when the world was new
Bm A
It seemed so flawless, now I know
D E
That no perfection s ever true.

Bm A
I once considered you a friend,
D E
Before my world went straight to hell
Bm A
The scars you ve cause will never mend
D E
But then, you know that all too well.
D
All too well...

Bm A
Oh, Celestia, my dear,
D E
We used to laugh, we use to play
Bm A
But now the world has changed, I fear
D E
And all because of that one day.
D
That one day...

Bm A
Its truth seems like mythology
D E
For none recall except us two,
Bm A
Now misery belongs to me
D E
And perfect bliss resides in you.

Bm A
The choices that I made perhaps
D E
Were not the wisest, yes it s true
Bm A

But even so, we used to laugh,
D E
Why did it have to end so soon?

Bm A
Oh, Celestia, you were my rock
D E
Before the fates led us astray
Bm A
But now on different roads we walk
D E
I wish that you would turn my way.
D
Just turn my way...

Bm A
You chose to live your royalty
D E
And left your dear old friend behind,
Bm A
All alone, I m never free.
D E
For I only wish that you d be mine,

Bm A
I thought we were a perfect pair,
D E
I thought those days of bliss were real,
Bm A
I guess you never really cared,
D E
And now Chaotic hatred s all I feel.
D
It s all I feel...

D E
You left me helpless, I consented,
D Bm D
Turned to spreading fear across the earth
D E
Do I regret? Have I repented?
D E Bm
As if my words hold any worth.

Bm A
Oh, Celestia, my love,
D E
We used to laugh, we used to play
Bm A
But now you rule the sun above.
D E
I guess there s one thing left to say:

Bm

A

Celestia, I hate you so,

D

E

My days have darkened, dull and gray

Bm

A

I wanted you with all my soul

D

E

But you just turned and walked away.