Verse 1

This song, is dedicated to me
I wake up sometimes, thinking how it could be
Then I sit here
I sit here alone
Feels like all my flesh is ripped from my bones

Verse 2

This song, is dedicated to me
There's no one in this world, more evil than she
She used all her tricks
The tricks of the trade
Until all that I used to be was erased

Verse 3

This song, is dedicated to me
Sometimes I wonder, why this is happening to me
But I'm still here
And she is still there
She's even tried to change the colour of her hair

Verse 4

This song, is dedicated to me
This is the last time, someone will walk over me
I know it will take
Some time to move on
But I've learnt what don't kill you, it just makes you strong

Verse 5

So this song, is dedicated to me
I don't need no one else, it's all down to me

I might need some help
Somewhere down the road
But Iâ€™ll be laughing at this when Iâ€™m old
