The Stoics - Ballad Of A Bitch
Great band and song.

Listen to get the timing.

Intro

Am-E7-Am-E7-Am-E7-Am-Am-Am

Beneath the sun and the water, I will make love to your daughter all day
Am E7 Am E7 Am E7 Am Am Am
C B A# Am E7 Am
E7

on the banks of the river where you re madly forbidden to play
Am E7 Am E7 D
and i ll return you that evening with your dress all worn and frayed
C B A# Am E7 Am
E7

and the mud from the river on her back where she spent the day

G Am E7 Am E7
so she crept up the stairway in fear,
G Am E7 Am E7
she was old enough to comprehend, but young enough not to care
G Am E7 Am E7
when her father stopped her dead in her tracks
G Am E7 Am E7
and questioned of her, that mud on her back D C B A#
and she said, mmm, mmm, mmm

Am C G F E
father, wont you please hear me out
Am C G F E
see, i met this special boy and theres not one shred of doubt
Am C G F E
i love him, but i do not feel the same (he does not feel the same)
Am C
see im young enough to be a fool, G F E
but not old enough to take the blame
F E
not old enough to take the blame, so blame him
