D
So come all brave irishmen

G D
Wherever you may be

I ll tell you a story

A D
That happened to me

Its tis of a shooting

G D
That happened long ago

In a town called Kilkenny

A D
A place we all know

twas early in the morning
Johnny was met with the dew
By the bastard bailiff
And his trecherous crew
You couldn t pay your rent
So you ll pay with your land
From the country you love
Forever you ll be banned

D G
Go Go Johnny Grey

D A
Go Go Johnny Grey

D G
Go Go Johnny Grey

And a rebel he will stay

Johnny grabbed his gun
Yelled you won t take me alive

For my true love Ireland
I am prepared to die
And all the brave irishmen
Will share the same fate as me
But the bailiff knew tomorrow
Johnny d be swinging from a tree

Johnny pulled the trigger
And the captian he fell dead
The bailiff raised his gun
Aimed squared at johnny s head
Another shot was fired
And the bailiff, he did slay
And that was the ending
Of Young Johnny Grey

So come all brave irishmen
Wherever you may be
Don t let them transport you
All over the sea
Stay in your own country
And defend your own land
And soon we ll be free
From this trecherous band
