

Am

Determine your rise as much as your mind

C

Like skyscrapers theyre slowly cracking

Am

On the backs of the men who been building them

C

Imported by self-styled pharaohs

G

F

Where the washing of bills and the ringing of tills drown out any notions that question

Am

C

Ethics in a land that places faith in its candid glamour and hype on billboards

Am

C

In place of social foundations build monorail stations to ease congestion while enlarging the airport

Am

C

Followed by road-side stares everywhere everyday its all perspective people say

G

F

Buy a model home in the mall and deck it out with kitsch décor from Arabian heritage stalls

Chorus

Am

C

Cause theres a price to be paid, Cause theres a price to be paid

Am

C

Cause theres a price to be paid, Cause theres a price to be paid

Verse

Am

Slipped back home all alone

C

Trying to keep myself to my family and friends

Am

Spotted at the beach taken out to lunch flat whites and carrot cake,

C

At The Lime Tree, Café by the bay

Am

C

The marina bouncers are lame and were all so artificially tame

G

F

And around and around and around and again, And we dance and we drink and we spin and we sing

Am

C

Da dum da dum da da da dum, Da dum da dum da da da dum

Am

C

Da dum da dum da da da dum, Da da dum da da da dum

Am C
Da dum da dum da da da dum, Da dum da dum da da da dum

G F
Da dum da dum da da da dum, Da dum da dum da da da dum

Am C
Da dum da dum da da da dum, Da dum da dum da da da dum

Am C
Da dum da dum da da da dum, Da da dum da dum
