A Beautiful World - by Tim Myers

I saw that no one was doing a tab for this song yet, so I decided to make my own. It about right; you just need to get the strumming and follow his rhythm on the original song.

Tim plays the song with a capo on the 7th fret, but depending on your singing tone, you want to alter it, and put the capo on a fret closer to the guitar head.

CAPO: 2nd fret, 4th fret, or 7th fret (original); your preference.
