This my rendition of this ever popular reggae tune by T.O.K " Footprints.
Listen to the for timing and strumming in case any difficulties playing it. Enjoy, the song can be on the DROP LEAF RIDDIM ALDUM with a couple of the other songs with the same rhythm and progressions that's how reggae is these days they share RIDDIMS. So basically the is the ARTIST these days.

1 verse (Flexx)

Hurry up and come back was the last thing she said to her son the day his life was taken she did not know he wouldn't come back he died from the bullet of a gun and now her boy is gone

(Alex)

She said help me, Lord help me and when she looked up to the sky and she heard a voice reply

Chorus

When you cry, I cry I cry along with you, When you smile I smile, I smile along with you

When you cry, I cry I cry along with you, When you smile I smile, I smile along with you

abandoned when he was two so the street side kids at the shopping mall was the family he it s not easy being homeless sometimes you have to do what you what you have to do and didnâ€™t have a mom or dad to help him get through

(Alex)

He said help me, Father help me and then he looked up to the sky and he heard a voice reply

Chorus

3 verse (Bay-C) raps or chants

This anna true story, my condolences keep ya head up

It was early Sunday morning mi get up a watch the news then mi hear seh friday a seaview kill a youth den mamma tell mi seh her church sister Jacqueline just loose her brother seaview gardens when she tell mi jah jah know ti mash mi up naah tell nuh lie but yuh seh man a thuggish so yuh naah go see me cry everyday and every night she still a ask father why her brother had to die she heard a voice reply
