

Tony Button - Bitter Buffalo
Misc Unsigned Bands

Tony Button - Bitter Buffalo

Album- The Dream You Breathe

verse                    D - Emin - G            chorus to verse - Emin - G - A

Chorus-            Emin - G - D

D                      Emin                      G

It s Been A long day out in Bitter Buffalo.

D	Emin	G
---	------	---

Its been rainin for hours , got my shoes strapped to my feet, and Iam searchin for my way home.

D	Emin	G
---	------	---

I ve been beatin black and blue by the border patrol, Denied America my home sweet home.

( chorus )

Emin	G	D
------	---	---

Everybody s just searching for away home.

Emin	G	D
------	---	---

Everybody s just searching for away home.

Emin	G	D
------	---	---

Everybody s just searching for away home.

Emin	G	D
------	---	---

Everybody s just searching for away home.

D                                  Emin      G

Crusin down the freeway south 359. Strait on back to that lonley, lonley life yeah.

D                      Emin                      G

I ve never had much of anything at all.

D	Emin	G
---	------	---

While the windshild wipers slowly wash my dreams away. I still see you standing there that day.

Emin                      G                      D

You were just searching for a away home

( chorus )

Emin                      G                      D

Everybody s just searching for away home.

Emin                    G                    D
Everybody s just searching for away home.

Emin                    G                    D
Everybody s just searching for away home.

Emin                    G                    D
Everybody s just searching for away home.

reserved

copyright Tony Button 2009. all rights

Transposed by Bennie Payne