

Trees - The Garden Of Jane Delawney
Misc Unsigned Bands

This is the british folk-rock band Tree s gem. An intresting and haunting song sung by Celia Humphris.

[Intro]

C

[Verse]

Dm A Bb Gm

The poet s voice lingers on

Dm A Dm A

His words hang in the air

Dm A Bb Gm

The ground you walk upon

Dm A Bb Gm

Might as well not be there

Dm A Dm A

Might as well not be there

[Verse]

Dm A Bb Gm

I ll take you through my dreams

Dm A Dm A

Out into the darkest morning

Dm A Bb Gm

Past the blood filled streams

Dm A Bb Gm

Into the garden of jane Delawney

C

Into the garden now

[Verse]

Dm A Bb Gm

Though the rose is fair

Dm A Dm A

Don t pluck it as you pass

Dm A Bb Gm

For a fire will consume your hair

Dm A Bb Gm

And your eyes will turn to glass

Dm A Dm A

Your eyes will turn to glass

[Verse]

Dm A Bb Gm

In the willow s shade

Dm A Dm A

Don't lie to hear it weep
Dm A Bb Gm
For its tears of gold and jade
Dm A Bb Gm
Will drown you as you sleep
C
Will drown you now

[Verse]

Dm A Bb Gm
Jane Delawney had her dreams
Dm A Dm A
That she never did discover
Dm A Bb Gm
For the flow that feeds the stream
Dm A Bb Gm
Is the life blood of her lover
Dm A Dm
Is the life blood of her lover

[Verse]

A Bb Gm
And the purifying beam
Dm A Dm A
Of the sun will shine here never
Dm A Bb Gm
While the spirit of her dream
Dm A Bb Gm
In the garden lives forever
C
Lives forever now