Am F C
So you woke up on the road
G Am F
You don't know where you were but that's ok
C G
You know you're on your way

You hang on to the wheel
The night it hits your eyes and covers up
The things you left behind

C C/B Am
And in the same head, in the same breath
F
You find you can't write it out at all
Cause summer can't wait and I can't wait
To see you in everything
C C/B Am Em
And you're already gone
I'm already wrong
You're already gone I'm already wrong

Am F C G
So it's over for a while And until next time
It's not even a day your vacation goes away

And it's better when it hurts Cause it means that you're awake
And it gets through When she turns into you
