Verse:

G Bb C G
I started out with nothing and I guess Ill end that way
G Bb F G
Its funny how time can make you pay and pay
G Bb C G
Ive seen good times and Iâ€™ve seen bad
G Bb F G
Aint gonna worry about all the things that I had
G F C G
For Im Living every day for today
G F C D
Till the time the come to take me away

C G
I lived in every city in this here land
C G
spent every nickel I had in my hand
C G
Ive done right and Iâ€™ve done wrong
F C G
Not wasting time tomorrow maybe gone
F C G
Living for today tomorrow maybe gone

Things are getting tougher each and every day
All the easy times looks like their gone to stay
They can take my house take my car too
Ill still be a happy man for the love of you
For Im Living every day for today
Till the time the come to take me away

Rich man poor man whoâ€™s to say
Really doesnâ€™t matter in the end anyway
Just hand me down my guitar and a cold brew
We will drink it down, dance around and sing a happy tune.
For Im Living every day for today
Till the time the come to take me away
