

Wrestlerish - Oliver Tambourine
Misc Unsigned Bands

Big up to AloneAndUnknown on Youtube for working this out - I m just tabbing her chords here.

Capo 2nd Fret (but you can play it without if you can t sing as high as Werner)

The chords he uses are just G#, Fm, Cadd2 and G/Eb.

I use the add2 cos it s much easier to get to the G/Eb from it in the chorus, but they both sound ok You can play the proper open C but it s a lot easier to use these the Cadd2 and these ones:

	G#	C#(add2)	Fm	G/Eb
e:	0	0	0	(2) (but I just leave it open or mute it)
B:	3	3	3	3
G:	0	0	0	2
D:	0	2	2	0
A:	2	3	2	0
E:	3	x	0	2

Then for his little intro riff (and pretty much whenever he plays a G) he just plays the G and does this:

e:-0-0-
B:-3-3-
G:-0-0-
D:-0-0-
A:-0h2-
E:-3-3-

And then strums the G and fiddles the high strings. Most of the melody comes from the bass.

With the lyrics now:

VERSE:

Fm

If nothing ever really dies then

C# G#
why do I feel barely alive?

Fm

If we re only living for second tries then

C# G#
baby surely I should spend the night

CHORUS:

Fm

You should speak your mind,

C#

G#

and I could be a nicer guy

G/Eb

If I tried

Fm

You could be just fine,

C#

hanging on those lines

G#

but I would die

G/Eb

before I let you take me alive

BRIDGE:

(Just C and G, and sometimes he does the hammer-on on the C#)

C#

G#

And I d give anything

C#

G#

To wake up next to you again

Then it s just the chorus again...
