

Wrestlerish - Oliver Tambourine
Misc Unsigned Bands

Big up to AloneAndUnknown on Youtube for working this out - I m just tabbing her chords here.

Capo 2nd Fret (but you can play it without if you can t sing as high as Werner)

The chords he uses are just F, Dm, Cadd2 and E/C.

I use the add2 cos it s much easier to get to the E/C from it in the chorus, but they both sound ok You can play the proper open C but it s a lot easier to use these the Cadd2 and these ones:

F	Bb(add2)	Dm	E/C
e: 0	0	0	(2)	(but I just leave it open or mute it)
B: 3	3	3	3
G: 0	0	0	2
D: 0	2	2	0
A: 2	3	2	0
E: 3	x	0	2

Then for his little intro riff (and pretty much whenever he plays a G) he just plays the G and does this:

e:-0-0-
B:-3-3-
G:-0-0-
D:-0-0-
A:-0h2-
E:-3-3-

And then strums the G and fiddles the high strings. Most of the melody comes from the bass.

With the lyrics now:

VERSE:

Dm

If nothing ever really dies then

Bb F

why do I feel barely alive?

Dm

If we re only living for second tries then

Bb F

baby surely I should spend the night

CHORUS:

Dm

You should speak your mind,

Bb

F

and I could be a nicer guy

E/C

If I tried

Dm

You could be just fine,

Bb

hanging on those lines

F

but I would die

E/C

before I let you take me alive

BRIDGE:

(Just C and G, and sometimes he does the hammer-on on the Bb)

Bb

F

And I d give anything

Bb

F

To wake up next to you again

Then it s just the chorus again...
