Wrestlerish - Oliver Tambourine Misc Unsigned Bands

Big up to AloneAndUnknown on Youtube for working this out - I m just tabbing her chords here.

Capo 2nd Fret (but you can play it without if you can t sing as high as Werner)

The chords he uses are just F, Dm, Cadd2 and E/C.

I use the add2 cos it s much easier to get to the  $\mathbf{E}/\mathbf{C}$  from it in the chorus, but they both sound ok You can play the proper open C but it s a lot easier to use these the Cadd2 and these ones:

	F	Bb (add2	) Dm	E/C
e:	0	0	0	(2)	(but ]	just	leave	it	open	or	mute	it)
в:	3	3	3	3
G:	0	0	0	2
D:	0	2	2	0
A:	2	3	2	0
Ε:	3	X	0	2

Then for his little intro riff (and pretty much whenever he plays a G) he just plays the G and does this:

e:-0-0-

B:-3-3-

G:-0-0-

D:-0-0-

A:-0h2-

E:-3-3-

And then strums the G and fiddles the high strings. Most of the melody comes from the bass.

With the lyrics now:

VERSE:

Dm

If nothing ever really dies then

Bb F

why do I feel barely alive?

Dm

If we re only living for second tries then

Bb

baby surely I should spend the night

CHORUS:

Dm
You should speak your mind,
and I could be a nicer guy
    E/C
If I tried
Dm
You could be just fine,
hanging on those lines
but I would die
E/C
before I let you take me alive
BRIDGE:
(Just C and G, and sometimes he does the hammer-on on the Bb)
Bb
And I d give anything
{\tt Bb}
To wake up next to you again
```

Then it s just the chorus again...
