Am Em
take a walk down the river camp
D C
where the water led him away
Am Em
feed the ducks and gobberman
D C
you took a walk and never came back

Am Em
take a walk to elisabeth way
D C
thats the bridge where he met his match
Am Em
spare a thought for a dog or stray
D C
still waiting for his own evacke

Am Em
oh billy
D C
strange chap but he s such a charm
Am Em
oh billy
D C
i heard you flew into gods arms to day

Am Em
in the pub theres a silent hush
D C
an empty chair where he once sat
Am Em
and when the landlord buys a round
D C
he leaves the whisky on the beer mount

Am Em
for billy,
D C
a strange chap but he s such a charm
Am Em
oh billy,
D C

i heard you flew into gods arms

Am Em

oh billy,

D C

a strange chap but he s such a charm

Am Em

oh billy,

D C

i heard you flew into gods arms that day

G D Am

young heart, young blood, fly fly fly fly

G D Am Am Em

young heart, young blood, fly fly fly oh billy

D C

i heard you flew into gods arms

Am Em

oh billy,

D C

a strange chap but it says a charm

Am Em

oh billy

D C

a strange chap but it says a charm

Am Em

oh billy,

D C

i hope you flew into god arms that day
