

Zack Borer - If I Stay

Misc Unsigned Bands

F A Dm Bb

F A

Ashes of silver

Dm Bb

Broken glass

F A Dm Bb

Each one of you is different, bleached white and middle class

F A Dm Bb

Laughing through coffee and scrambled eggs

F A Dm Bb

Won't you bend down further, and show me some leg

F A Dm Bb

Dip it in honey, something sweet

F A Dm

Bb

I think you've got a little something right there on your teeth

F A Dm Bb

But I don't mind, you beauty queen

F A Dm Bb

There's something about you that's just waiting to be seen

A Bb A Bb

Are you talking to me, don't waste my time

A

Little by little you can climb my steps

Bb

cause your feet have a way of taking you beyond your legs

F Gmaj7 Bb C

And if I stay, would you regret it in the morning

F Gmaj7 Bb C

And if I wait, but I know we cant

F Gmaj7 Bb C

And if I stay, you'll turn around and tell me that you don't

F Gmaj7 Bb C

love me anymore

F A Dm Bb

There were times when I could not, I would not wish

F A Dm Bb

This here existence on even the most beautiful lips

F A Dm Bb

But then you came to me and you rescued my soul

F A Dm Bb
You put back together the pieces of my broken bones

A Bb A Bb
Arenâ€™t you listening to me? I really donâ€™t care

But you seem to know just how to shape
Bb A
the sunken parts of my solemn face

F Gmaj7 Bb C
And if I stay, would you regret it in the morning

F Gmaj7 Bb C
And if I wait, but I know we cant

F Gmaj7 Bb C
And if I stay, youâ€™ll turn around and tell me that you donâ€™t

F Gmaj7 Bb C
love me anymore
