

Alana Brezenski - Chicago Dont Own Me
Misc Your Songs

[Verse 1]

D A G D
Ain t know sushine upon you . a half a mile below
D A G D
My skins as white as lilys . but you d never know
D A G D
I m covered up, head to toe . so you d never . see it anyway
D A G D
I ve come home . as black as night . nearly .everyday

[Chorus]

G D
Some CEO from Chicago, who ain t worked a day
G A
Said coals heating up the planet, but how that is he just can t say
G D
Said solar and wind is the only thing that ll save us now
A G D
Coal is poisoning the planet but they can t say exactly how

[Verse 2]

D A G D
They re shutting down the mines I worked in all my life
D A G D
But I ain t sad a bit, headed home to tell my wife
D A G D
Finally can pick up the banjo and sit on my porch
D A G D
About time I got some fishing in down at Martin s Fork

[Chorus]

G D
Some CEO from Chicago, who ain t worked a day
G A
Said coals heating up the planet, but how that is he just can t say
G D
Said solar and wind is the only thing that ll save us now
A G D
Coal is poisoning the planet but they can t say exactly how

[Verse 3]

D A G D
Some are worried what will happen in this holler without the mines
D A G D
I ain t worried, had a life sentence and already served my time
D A G D

For the first time in 40 years you ll see a smile on my face

D A G D

Tonight I ll drive away, the last time I ll ever see this place.
