[verse]

C

Iâ€™m living here in Banjo Bay,

E7

I donâ€™t have a lot to say,

Am E7

Living here day to day for me.

C

The sun keeps burning me brown,

E7

I donâ€™t need a ride into town,

Am E7

Got a note from home just yesterday.

C

The palm trees keep sinking in the sand,

E7

Come on lend me a hand,

Am E7

I need help to gather in the sun.

C

I live on coconut and banana,

E7

The beach my home the sea my veranda,

Am E7

I have my stash, papers and a light.

Am E7 Am

Itâ€™s all right on Banjo Bay.

[BRIDGE]

Dm Am

Thereâ€™s only one thing Iâ€™ve wanted,

Dm Am

Thereâ€™s only one thing that I need,

Dm Am

Thereâ€™s only one thing thatâ€™s haunting me,

E7 Am

To have someone, here with me.

E7 Am

On Banjo Bay.

[verse]

C

I went to see the old beach doctor,

E7

He said, "Son you hadn't oughta,

Am E7

Sleep alone it makes you mean and old."

C

He sent over his only daughter,

E7

She's sweet like coconut butter,

Am E7

She's all I need to get me through my life.

Am E7 Am

It's all right on Banjo Bay.

[BRIDGE]
