Bill Dickson - The Long Goodbye Misc Your Songs Original song: Words: Richard-Yves Sitoski, Music: Bill Dickson, All rights reserved. [Intro] C, F, G, [Verse] F Midnight on a country road, She pulled into an empty field, The wicked moon was shining high, The air was sweet magnolia, The grass was wet with an icy dew, G Am F G Perfect for a long goodbye. [Chorus] Αm â€~Cause she buried her love, Oh she buried her love, She buried her love in a shallow grave, Am â€~Cause she buried her love, She buried her love, F Am F G C G She buried her love in a shallow grave, [Verse] Boot prints on bleeding heart,

Fist around a rusty blade,

A smile and a bloodshot eye,

C
She filled the tank and made her run,
                F
I can't tell you where she's gone,
                        Am F G
Since I made my long goodbye.
[Chorus]
           Am
â€~Cause she buried her love,
Oh she buried her love,
She buried her love in a shallow grave,
      Am
Oh she buried her love,
She buried her love,
                                      F G C
                                  Am
She buried her love in a shallow grave,
[Verse]
I sleep now in a frozen bed,
My limbs are slack my fire is out,
Nevermore to see the sky,
But even now I love her still,
I miss her like I never did,
                             F G
                G
                          Am
Before I made my long goodbye.
[Chorus]
           Am
â€~Cause she buried her love,
Oh she buried her love,
She buried her love in a shallow grave,
Oh she buried her love,
She buried her love,
She buried her love in a shallow grave,
