

Cam Melton - A Song For Her

Misc Your Songs

[Verse 1]

Bb Eb
You wake me in the morning with your warmth and your caress
Cm Bb
Your whisper is my coffee, soothing me before I dress
Bb Eb
In the evening when the day fades out and I havenâ€™t done enough
Cm Bb
You rest my head against your breast and away my problems slough

[Verse 2]

Bb Eb
When Iâ€™m laying broken on the floor, you stroke my head and brush me off
Cm Bb
You patch me up and prop me up, and help me to the door

[Chorus]

Bb Eb
I know not how to thank you for everything you do
Cm Bb
So I wrote a song and wrote some words that probably will not do
Bb Eb Cm
I donâ€™t know where weâ€™re going, or if weâ€™ll know it when weâ€™re there, but I hope to god we find a way to
Bb Bb Cm Eb Bb
make it through as two. Make it through, make it through, make it through, me and you

[Verse 2]

Bb Eb
Youâ€™re my friend, my lover, the Bonnie to my Clyde
Cm Bb
My home, my hearth, place where I can hide
Bb Eb
Life isnâ€™t always easy, it isnâ€™t always kind
Cm
But Iâ€™ve found that itâ€™s much better, girl
Bb
when you are by my side

[Chorus]

Bb Eb
I know not how to thank you for everything you do
Cm Bb

So I wrote a song and wrote some words that probably will not do

Bb Eb Cm

I donâ€™t know where weâ€™re going, or if weâ€™ll know it when weâ€™re there,
but I hope to god we find a way to

Bb Bb Cm Eb Bb

make it through as two. Make it through, make it through, make it through, me
and you