

Christy Quinlan - The Children We Teach
Misc Your Songs

For the chorus play a G barre chord instead of a open chord
Single strums for the outro verse

[Intro]

C Em G D7

[Verse]

C

Dyou know whats sad

Em

Dyou know whats a pittty

G D7

There aint no horizon in my big city

C

There s no faith in a man

Em

Not even a brother

G

But we have to love someone

D7

So why not eachother

[Verse]

C

Dyou know whats sad

Em

Dyou know whats a pittty

G D7

The kids arent kids in this big city

C

Not a glass half empty

Em

Nor a glass half full

G

Cause we re drinking from the bottle

D7

While the lads are on the pull

[Chorus]

Am

Coz you don t just look at a flower

C

An tell it to grow

F

Coz youve got to take the time

G

Until the petals show

Am

An its stiff at the stem

C

But pretty at the top

F

But you have to just stay strong

G

G F# F C

Just promise you wont stop

[Verse]

C

Dyou know whats sad

Em

Dyou know whats a pitty

G

D7

The dust has only just settled in this windy city

C

Your eyes are red raw

Em

Lets settle for a draw

G

But as soon as i leave

D7

The tears begin to pour

[Interlude/Solo]

C Em G D7 x5

[Outro]

C

Dyou know whats sad

Em

Dyou know whats a pitty

G

D7

The stars have all faded in my fair city