Part of the song: whole song

[Intro]

Am

[Verse]

Am

A pastor told me "Son...a man lives with what he's done,

E7

But nothing's ever quite as bad as it feels.

E7

If you're gonna wait until your pockets start to spill

Am

Better go out there and learn to seal the deal

Am

I think Whitman said it right, you only live until you die

E7

So don't make the worst of everything you see

E7

'Cause vaults always open. Dirt is gone with soap and

Am

Streets were only paved to skin your knees.

[Chorus]

Dm

Am

He said "Don't spend wooden nickels shut the tap if it trickles

E

E7

You gotta lose before you win, Forgiveness needs a sin

Dm

Am

The devil takes your soul, but turns your doubt into gold dust

E7

You are the only man you'll ever be

[Bridge]

Am E7

E7 Am

[Verse]

Am

Promises will lie, but tears will always dry

E7

Your gut's the only truth you'll ever need

E7

You'll sound so damn smart, when you listen to your heart

Am

The answers pump around until you bleedâ€•

[Chorus]
