[Verse 1]
The first day that I met you,
You were very sweet.
We talked and talked for hours,
And you turned up the heat.
Next morning I was happy,
Em
I got a brand new text.
Was it you or just someone,
But I didn't dare to check.
[Chorus]
                                    Εm
If the guts wouldn't lack me, I had already asked her out,
And I would kiss her, yeah kiss her.
If she only just knew that I did write this song about her,
She would date me, or block me.
```

[Verse 2]
Your hair is long and beautiful.
Your eyes are pretty brown.
Your smile reminds me every time,
Of what I miss and missed in life.
And sometimes when I get a text,
My heart just skips a beat.
Do you want to date me,
Yeah we can be discreet.
[Chorus]
                                    Em
If the guts wouldn't lack me, I had already asked her out,
And I would kiss her, yeah kiss her.
If she only just knew that I did write this song about her,
She would date me, or block me.
[Verse 3]
The first date was wonderful,
You were very sweet.
I loved everything about you,
From your head to your feet
But what I still wonder,
Is when I meet this girl.
In my head I did date you.
But not in the real world.
[Chorus]
                                    Em
If the guts wouldn't lack me, I had already asked her out,
And I would kiss her, yeah kiss her.
