Mark Brezenski - Long White Coats Misc Your Songs

[Verse 1]

FAmCEmWatched your parents struggle for everything they claim

Fmaj7CGAmA5AmYour father fought the great war, when his country called his name

FAmCEmLessons of grit and determination is all that he displayed

Fmaj7CGAmA5AmThe greatest generation, we still call them that today

FAmCEmWhen you outsource your life to the prescription of the day

Fmaj7CGAmA5AmWhy did you not learn there are consequences for which you have to pay

FAmCEmWatched you ride an airport wheelchair, when you can walk just fine

Fmaj7CGAmA5AmWhile a 90 year old beside you, proudly stands in line

[Chorus]

ABmGDThe charlatans of yesteryear sold their elixirs disguised as hope

ABmGGsus4DThey made more promises of paradise than even the catholic pope

ABmGDThey were replaced by pushers on street corners peddling their dope

ABmGGsus4DHard for them to compete today with men wearing long white coats

[Verse 2]

FAmCEmYour parents worked the fields and factories, no need for gyms

Fmaj7 C A5 G Am Am It kept their minds sharp and their bodies slim F Am C Em You never heard them complain about the aches or pains Fmaj7 C G A5 Am Am They wore callousses as much a part of them as their given names F Am Em C How could you have witnessed their life and be the person you ve become Fmaj7 C G Am A5 Αm Did you simply ignore the lessons or choose to become so numb F Am C Em When life becomes too easy it always corrupts the mind Fmaj7 С G Α5 Am Am When people seek the road most traveled, ruination is all they find [Chorus] Bm Α G D The charlatans of yesteryear sold their elixirs disguised as hope Bm G Gsus4 D Α They made more promises of paradise than even the catholic pope Α Bm G D They were replaced by pushers on street corners peddling their dope Gsus4 D Α Bm G Hard for them to compete today with men wearing long white coats [Verse 3] F C Em Am How did you come to think life could be divorced from what you earn Fmaj7 C G Am A5 Am How could you watch your parents fight to live, and this be the lesson that you learned. \mathbf{F} Em Am C No need to leave the house for shopping, just call the QVC Fmaj7 C G Am A5 Am No need to cook your dinner, pizza delivery is free

FAmCEmA pill to wake you up, a pill to go to sleep

Fmaj7CGAmA5AmAnother to hide the promises to yourself, that you never keep

FAmCEmA pill to take away your manufactured pain

Fmaj7CGAmA5AmStill there aren t enough, to satisfy your long list of complaints
