

Ray Porter - Neanderthals Still Roam
Misc Your Songs

[Verse 1]

Em
I was coming from the club, I was pretty full up Em Bm
a man said what you doin lad, your eyes are all lit up Bm Am
I said I took a pill to make me feel a little calmer
Am Em
he said let s have a fight cus I m a real hard farmer
Em
well he wrestled me to the ground and took my wallet Em Bm
so I smashed him with a brick and made him drop it Bm Am
oh the trouble that you have just getting home
Am Em
it makes me feel like living on my own

[Chorus

C Why does it have to be like this
G Bm
every time I leave the club someone wants to have a go
C G
I thought the stone age had gone ten thousand years ago
G Bm
but Neanderthals still roam

[Verse 2]

Em
One day I was walking down Union street with this girl Em Bm Am
and someone said what s that on your head I said it s grease
Am Em
have you never heard of Brylcream, man where have you been Em
he said you re not normal lad you don t look like all the rest
Em Bm Am
I said I m not a robot, I m a rockin roller from the fifties
Am Em
he looked at me rather shifty

[Chorus

Why does it have to be like this
G Bm
every time I leave the club someone wants to have a go

I thought the stone age had gone ten thousand years ago

G Bm
but Neanderthals still roam

[Verse 3]

Em
I went back to this girls house and her dad came down
Em Bm
in the middle of the night with his pyjama s on, he Bm Em
he said what s the bloody noise, I said you must have left your tv on Em
he said get out of my house you little swine
Em Bm
the girl is never yours she s always mine
Bm Am
I said keep her man she s hardly worth the trouble
Am Em
he marched me out the house at the double

[Chorus

Why does it have to be like this
G Bm
every time I leave the club someone wants to have a go
C G
I thought the stone age had gone ten thousand years ago
G Bm Em
but Neanderthals still roam, Neanderthals still roam
