

Ray Porter - Not Quite Dead Yet
Misc Your Songs

[Verse 1]

Bb Bbm A7 Dm
through the window a cold wind blowing from her grave she walks
Dm Bb Bbm F
she s returned to let her spirit talk
F Em F
I knew she d return home, I heard it in her moans

[Chorus]

Db Eb Ab Db Eb
 Ab
I should have known you would not leave me on my own, I should have known you d
come back home
A7 Dm Bb Bbm
one more time to show me that death will have no hold on me
Dm Bbm Dm G7
we are all spirit, and we re not quite dead yet
Dm Bbm Dm G7
we are all spirit, and we re not quite dead yet

[Verse 2]

Bb Bbm A7 Dm
When I feel you in my room I m no longer alone
Dm Bb Bbm F
I can almost even feel your bones
F Em F
I taste you on my breath, I brush off all the earth

[Chorus]

Db Eb Ab Db Eb
 Ab
I should have known you would not leave me on my own, I should have known you d
come back home
A7 Dm Bb Bbm
one more time to show me that death will have no hold on me
Dm Bbm Dm G7
we are all spirit, and we re not quite dead yet
Dm Bbm Dm G7
we are all spirit, and we re not quite dead yet