G Cadd9 G Cadd9

Verse:

G Cadd9

They were juniors in high school

G Cadd9

They didn't know right from wrong

G Cadd9

They went to all the school dances

G Cadd9

And they danced to their favorite song

D C

And Johnny still loves rock and roll

D C

And every night he plays

D C

And some day he will figure out

G Cadd9

Why his best friend had to move away

G Cadd9

They go to lunch and they talk about

G Cadd9

What will happen when they grow old

G

Cadd9

They figure they will all be famous

G Cadd9

And they will never have to be alone

D C

But Paul is failing school again

D C

And he still sells his pot

D C

And one day he will finally realize

G Cadd9

That these jobs don't offer a lot.

G Cadd9

Chorus:

G

They were still young

Cadd9

And they were so sure

D

That one day theyâ€™ll be what they wanna be

G Cadd9

And some day theyâ€™ll know

D

That life is not all about rock-n-roll

G Cadd9

And I pray they do well

D

Em D

Cause now theyâ€™re on the verge of breakin down

G

Cadd9

They were all still young.

Verse:

G Cadd9

Theyâ€™ve known each other since third grade

G

Cadd9

She was his very first true love

G

Cadd9

Everyone thought theyâ€™d get married

G

Cadd9

And he figured she was sent from above

C

But every time they talked, they fought.

C

But they had something special there

C

Cause they loved each other way too much

G

Cadd9

To stop to think or even care.

Chorus 1x

Bridge:

Am

D

Best friends may not fight

Am

D

Some may never dare

Am

D

But when it comes straight down to it

G

Cadd9

Real friends wouldnâ€™t care.

Chorus 2x
