backup to see a movie at night
      B
that i let the world slip out my hands
                                        F# cos ive been watching from the stands up till now
F#
shes a girl whos got me thinking
                                  B and shes just got my heart sinking to the ground to all the sounds that make up
the night
F#
   i wear red shoes, she wears black shoes
C#   B
lets just drink the night away
F#   C#   B
i dont care what she says cos i never loved her anyway
F#
love in my hand
                        C#   B
it understands that love was never meant to be this way

F#
i knew my girl would let me down
    B
do i laugh or cry this summers night
                          F#
I ll be alright this time tomorrow
F#
please dont ask me what i was thinking
                       B
please just ask me what im drinking
i dont need no sympathy its the bit i leave out
