Dm

[Verse 1]

Dm

Well, a cop got away

Dm

With murder today

Bb

Sparked the march

E A

Of the fiery brigade

Dm

Dm

How they screamed at the lenses, the lawyers and lights

Bb

E

And they hurled all their curses with all of their might

Bb

And the news

Said glad that it s over

Bb

The left-paper rags

E A

Said there goes another

Dm

E

Gm

And both sides left the signs with the stacked barricades

Bb

Dm

Dm Bb E A

It ll wash it all away when it rains

[Verse 2]

Dm
Well, they came down from high rises
Dm
Mansions, estates
Bb
Downtown into a city
E A
Of catered champagne
Dm
And they laughed and they danced
Dm
And they dined on their steaks
Bb
There were floors to be swept
E A
And bills to be paid
Bb
And the mayor
Said glad you came over
Gm
And now what to do
Bb A
With these jailed wild rovers?
Dm E Gm A
All the courts, and confetti, and dumpsters in flames
Bb A Dm
It ll wash it all away when it rains

[Ladadada Part, same chords as verses]

Dm Bb E A
Dm Dm Bb E A
Bb Bb Dm Dm x4

Dm Dm Dm Dm

[Verse 3]

Dm
There s a man on the bridge
Dm
Old rust and new paint
Bb
While the marching machine s
E A
Spilling sand by the bay
Dm
Pump s busted again
Dm
For the rivers and trains
Bb

While the choirs all preach

E A

Bout an earth to be saved

Bb

Don't you know

There's no need to worry

Gm

Of the old tale

Bb A

With a beautiful ending

Dm

All the shells

And the smoke

Gm Dm

And the hallowed ground paved

Dm

And the scraps

And the crumbs

Gm A

And the mess that we made

Dm E Gm A

And I wish that it all would just go away

Bb A

It'll wash it all away

A7 Dm

When it rains
