Dancing Dirt Into the Snow-Missy Higgins

Ok this is my first ever chord thing. It follows the same pattern throughout the whole thing so I think you could work it out from listening to the song.

The whole song is- Cm Bb Gm Ab

Cm Bb Gm Ab
Alone you find yourself just hanging,
Cm Bb Gm Ab
and to fill the hole you cling to all that seems,
Cm Bb Gm Ab
to hide the little girl thats crying,
Cm B B Gm Ab
underneath the rage that you let others see.

Cm Bb
Cause you re dancing dirt into the snow
Gm Ab
while others look at you on show.
You re dancing dirt into the snow
while all around you people grow
And watch you bleed.
And watch you bleed.

So now you look at me, eyes wooden.
An anchor through your head; crimson for disguise.
An opal for a wound you carry, fairy lights of pleading someone look at me.

Cause you re dancing dirt into the snow
while others look at you on show.
You re dancing dirt into the snow
while all around you people grow
And watch you bleed.
And watch you bleed.

The more you push through broken glass, the thicker it becomes.
And the more you turn on broken worlds, the sooner you will need.
The more you push through broken glass, the thicker it becomes.
And the more you turn on broken worlds, the sooner you will need A gun.

Cause you re dancing dirt into the snow

while others look at you on show.
You re dancing dirt into the snow
while all around you people grow.

There are some bits that really confuse me in the song and im not sure if they are the right chords for the whole thing especially the bridge but im sure that it involves the chords I wrote for it
