

I Will Waste My Life
Misty Edwards

I always searched for a chord chart for this song and could never find a good one.
So I decided to figure it out myself. If your a begginer, instead of tuining your guitar half a step down you could play it with this chord progression: Em D G.

(or) D#m C# F# (if you play it with Em G D, It will not match the song because it is a half step higher, but it will almost sound exactly the same.)
