

Mystery

Misty Edwards

Intro: C C7/B A F (G)

          G      C                  C7/B                  Am                  F
Youre a mystery like poetry like a parable, a rhyme or a riddle

          G      C                  C7/B                  Am
Youre a mystery wrapped in clouds shouting so loud

                                  F
Just waiting to be discovered

          G      C                  C7/B
Youre a mystery - so intriguing.

                  Am                  F          G
Youre a mystery - so inviting.

          F                                  G
You saved Yourself for the weak, the broken and the meek

          F                                  G
Only the hungry dine, only the thirsty drink deep.

          F                                  G
You saved Yourself for the needy; You saved yourself for me.

          G      C                  C7/B                  Am                  F
Youre a mystery like poetry like a parable, a rhyme or a riddle

          G      C                  C7/B                  Am
Youre a mystery wrapped in clouds shouting so loud

                                  F
Just waiting to be discovered

C                  G/D                  Am                  F                  G
I want to waste my life to search You out, search You out [Repeat]

C  G
I dont want to build castles in the sand.

Am  F
I dont want to live in a fairytale.

G                  C                                  G
I want whats real - the knowledge of You.

          Am                                  F          G
I will remain forever, remain forever.

C                  G/D                  Am                  F                  G
I want to waste my life to search You out, search You out [Repeat]