Intro:

D F# G A D
You don't know why I say these things, but it's ok
F# G A D
I'm just tired, and stressed over back in the day
F# G A
She said don't you ever miss those days?
D F# G A
I just miss those records shops, and the nights I got to stay, but it's ok

G A D
It's what I need
Don't forget me
G A D
You fall in love, too easily
G A D
So I'll just forget the world
G A D
So I'll just forget the world

D F# G A
I surrender, this feeling of regret
D F# G A
Cause I really think I'd rather look ahead and just forget
D F# G A
I'm just full of problems that make you feel alone
D F# G A
And you know I like to talk, but I'll just take the long way home

[there's some lead part here I haven't figured out yet]

D F# G A
It's not hard to remind yourself why you tried
D F# G A
This open road and a song to sit by your side
D F# G A D F#
I'm just scared of the doubt, but I won't let it last,
G A
Yeah I'll forget about that

G A D
It's what I need
G
Don't forget me
A D

You fall in love, too easily
