Intro:

```
F#          Bb          B                    C#          F#
You don t know why I say these things, but it s ok
        Bb          B           C#          F#
I m just tired, and stressed over back in the day
        Bb              B                   C#
She said don t you ever miss those days?
        F#                  Bb              B               C#
I just miss those records shops, and the nights I got to stay, but it s ok
```

```
B    C#      F#
It s what I need
Don t forget me
B    C#      F#
You fall in love, too easily
B          C#          F#
So I ll just forget the world
B          C#          F#
So I ll just forget the world
```

```
F#      Bb          B           C#
I surrender, this feeling of regret
        F#              Bb          B                   C#
Cause I really think I d rather look ahead and just forget
        F#      Bb          B           C#
I m just full of problems that make you feel alone
        F#          Bb              B                   C#
And you know I like to talk, but I ll just take the long way home
```

```
[there s some lead part here I haven t figured out yet]
F#      Bb      B           C#
It s not hard to remind yourself why you tried
F#      Bb      B           C#
This open road and a song to sit by your side
F#      Bb          B           C#          F#      Bb
I m just scared of the doubt, but I wont let it last,
            B           C#
Yeah I ll forget about that
```

```
B    C#      F#
It s what I need
            B
Don t forget me
    C#          F#
```

You fall in love, too easily
B   C#   F#
So I ll just forget the world
B   C#   F#
So I ll just forget the world
