World At Large Modest Mouse

I m not sure if this is 100% correct, its my first tab and when I sing it, it sounds really good. Open Capo.

G

Ice-age heat wave, can t complain.

If the world s at large, why should I remain?

Em

Walked away to another plan.

Cm

Gonna find another place, maybe one I can stand.

I move on to another day, to a whole new town with a whole new way.

Em

Went to the porch to have a thought.

Cm

Got to the door and again, I couldn t stop.

You don t know where and you don t know when.

But you still got your words and you got your friends.

Walk along to another day.

Work a little harder, work another way.

Well uh-uh baby I ain t got no plan.

We ll float on maybe would you understand?

Gonna float on maybe would you understand?

Well I ll float on maybe would you understand?

G

The days get shorter and the nights get cold.

I like the autumn but this place is getting old.

I pack up my belongings and I head for the coast.

It might not be a lot but I feel like I m making the most.

The day s get longer and the nights smell green.

I guess it s not surprising but it s spring and I should leave.

G
I like songs about drifters - books about the same.
They both seem to make me feel a little less insane.
Walked on off to another spot.
I still haven t got anywhere that I want.
Did I want love? Did I need to know?
Why does it always feel like I m caught in an undertow?
The moths beat themselves to death against the lights.
Adding their breeze to the summer nights.
\mathbf{Em}
Outside, water like air was great.
Cm
I didn t know what I had that day.
Walk a little farther to another plan.
You said that you did, but you didn t understand.
Em, Cm, G, Em
I know that starting over is not what life s all about.
But my thoughts were so loud, I couldn t hear my mouth.
My thoughts were so loud, I couldn t hear my mouth.
My thoughts were so loud.
